SEPTEMBER 2020 PROGRAMS

{405 E Street-719.539.4826}

Participant numbers will be limited for all onsite programs. Preregistration is requested. Walk-ins welcome if space is available. Masks are required.

MONDAY

“From Inspiration to Voice” Adult Writing Class: Sept. 14, 21, 28 & Oct. 5, 12; 10-11 a.m.
Ages: 18+
Classroom discussions will revolve around the organization of text, word imagery, the value of voice and the value of personal experience. Homework will include bringing in excerpts from favorite readers as well as creating personal content. We will be exploring the symbiotic relationship between writing and reading.

WEDNESDAY

Virtual Storytime with Becky: Weekly, 10-10:30 a.m. Ages: 0-6 years old
Storytime will only be available on Facebook Live at this time.

Grown-Up Game Night: Sept. 2, 5-6:30 p.m.
Ages: 18+
We’ve got the games, we just need you! Bring a friend or two and unwind after a busy day.
We’ll have snacks!

Free Lawyer Clinic: Sept. 9, 2-5 p.m. Ages: All Call to reserve a 30-minute time slot. At this time, all appointments will be done by phone.

TUESDAY

Middle School Trivia: Sept. 8 & 22, 4:15-5 p.m.
Ages: 5th-8th grade
Invite a friend and join us for some trivia!

Amy’s Book Club: Sept. 15, 5-6 p.m. Ages: 18+
The group will discuss “Persepolis” by Marjane Satrapi, a nonfiction graphic memoir.

“Nailed It” Craft Night: Sept. 22, 7-8:30 p.m.
Ages: 21+
We’ll pick a project from Pinterest and do our best to recreate it! Previous art experience is NOT required! All supplies provided.

Mark Parisi’s Drawing Workshop: Sept. 29, 4:30-5:30 p.m. Ages: Recommended for grades 2-7, but all ages welcome!
The interactive, humor-filled presentation includes lots of funny cartoons, Marty Pants characters, writing and drawing tips, and more! Bring your paper and pencil!

ALL PROGRAMS WILL BE HELD AT THE LIBRARY UNLESS NOTED OTHERWISE IN THE DESCRIPTION.
SEPTEMBER 2020 PROGRAMS

THURSDAY

Amy’s Book Club: Sept. 17, 10-11 a.m. The club meets at Alpine Park. Ages: 18+
The group will discuss “Persepolis” by Marjane Satrapi, a nonfiction graphic memoir.

Escape Room Club: Sept. 17, 4:30-5:30 p.m. Ages: Great for all ages, families welcome.
Work together in teams to solve puzzles and plan escape rooms for family and friends.
This program is for anyone interested in learning more about escape rooms!

Growing Readers Together Kick-Off: Sept. 24, 10 a.m.-noon. Ages: This program is for family, friends and neighbors (not parents) who provide childcare for kids ages 0-5.
This weekly program begins in October. FFN caregivers in Colorado will have the skills, confidence and resources to engage the children in their care with early literacy materials and activities daily.

FRIDAY

Community Scavenger Hunt: Sept. 18, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. All ages.
Stop by the library on Friday to pick up the list of items you will need to find. You’ve got from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to return your completed list. All participants will be entered in a drawing for prizes!

Slam It! Poetry and Pizza: Sept. 18, 25 & Oct. 2, 9, 16; 11 a.m.-noon. Ages: Middle school students
Using the power of youth voice and advocacy, instructors will help the students advocate for and educate the larger community on issues that matter to them most through poetry. There will be pizza!

Create a Special Book for a Friend: Sept. 25, 1-2:30 p.m. Ages: 4th-8th grade
This book will be a perfect gift for a friend or loved one as the seasons change. All materials will be provided.

SATURDAY

Morningstar Mutual Fund Database How-To: Sept. 5 & 19, 10:30-noon Ages: 18+
Richard Loth will walk participants through the ins and outs of mutual funds using the Morningstar database. This is not a financial advice class.

Call 539.4826 with questions and to register.