

Salida Regional Library Meeting Room Guidelines

The Salida Regional Library (SRL) is aware of the need for meeting space for local groups. Making available such accommodations to the public is an additional service, which the Library has established the following conditions as guidelines.

Meeting rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis. In fairness to all, a single group may not use the meeting room more than once a week, unless the room is available on a walk-in basis. The rooms may be booked in advance by calling SRL at 719-539-4826 or by coming into the library to reserve space. Smaller meeting rooms and the study room can be used by persons ten years of age and older. Actual booking may be done by an adult. Meeting room reservations can be made on a recurring basis, two months at a time (the current month and the next month). On the first day of the month at 9am (M-Sa) 1 pm (Sun), the additional month will open for reservations. Groups should notify SRL 24 hours in advance to cancel a reservation. If a group has not arrived or called to report a delay within 15 minutes after the scheduled time, staff may allow others to use the room.

*Room usage is not intended for commercial/for-profit individuals, groups, or organizations. Commercial/for profit. A meeting is defined as commercial if the group sponsoring or conducting the meeting has as the purpose of the meeting to advertise, promote, or sell a product or service; or for any and all other business-related functions such as market research, interviewing applicants, etc.

Priority for use of meeting/program spaces:

1. Library sponsored meetings or programs (in which Library staff or 3rd party hired by Library is present).
2. Non-profit organized sponsored meetings or programs, you may be asked to provide evidence of your 501(c)(3).
3. Community groups engaged in educational, cultural, intellectual, civic, or charitable activities (non-commercial)

Groups using a meeting/program space:

- Agree to hold the Library harmless from any loss, damage, liability, costs, or expense that may result from their use of the room.

No advertisement or announcement implying such endorsement will be permitted. Any advertisement or announcement regarding reservable spaces may not include the SRL logo or suggest co-sponsorship, only the SRL address may be used in identifying location, not the Library name. Any advertisement for event being held in the meeting room must be preapproved by the Library Director before going to the public. SRL at its sole discretion, reserves the right to revoke meeting and study room privileges at any time.
